

PRESS STATEMENT:
RESUMPTION OF OPERATIONS AT LPIA
Issued by Nassau Airport Development Company
Saturday, September 9, 2017 at 12:15pm

The Nassau Airport Development Company wishes to advise that the Lynden Pindling International Airport sustained no damage from Hurricane Irma.

In view of the “All Clear” issued by the National Emergency Management Agency and the Meteorological Department, airport employees and stakeholders are asked to safely return to the airport to prepare for the prompt resumption of operations on Sunday, September 10, 2017.

The travelling public will be encouraged to contact their respective airlines for flight information using the listing of all airlines and their contacts found on LPIA’s website at www.nassaulpia.com

NAD will continue to provide the public with updates via the local media and LPIA’s website and social media channels at Facebook and Twitter.
